Some of you do not wish your child to be photographed and we respect your decision; however there are occasions when there is a group picture we would like to submit to the local paper, no names are listed, do we have your permission to include your child's photo in this circumstance?

YES NO

Sacred Heart School has my permission to place my children's work (i.e.: science projects, artwork, etc.) on their web page, Sacred-Heart-School.com. It is my understanding that only children's first names will be present on the website with their work.
